Hi Christopher,

I read this article and decided to reach out to you:

<http://christophermatthewcavanaugh.org/how-do-people-with-iqs-over-180-act-and-think.html>

I founded an independent interview-based journal. I am an independent journalist and writer. I am linking to The Giga Society Conversations, and the most recent issue of the In-Sight: Independent Interview-Based Journal:

To the point, may I interview you, please? It will be for the series of the journal entitled "Outliers and Outsiders." If curious about consent, attachments to interest-groups or institutions, research ethics, even funding, and so on, Journal Overview:

Brief background and associations here, In-Sight People:

Hi Scott,

Thank you for your message. I was exposed to at least one of your articles previously, and found it enjoyable and informative (you probably saw I linked to an interview of yours from that page you visited).

I appreciate that you are doing this work and would be glad to support your efforts, and to be interviewed.

What would the format be, and when were you hoping to complete it?

I hope you had a pleasant weekend.

Cheers,

Matt

Hi Scott,

I was reading over your publication and it seems very nicely prepared. I noticed the section covering formats for interviews, and I would be very happy, and comfortable, doing the interview via email, or via a word document or other form, if that works for you.

Since I'm travelling and quite busy this would be simplest, but if you think it is desirable to have an in person interview, I'm not opposed to speaking over Zoom or other.

Have a great evening,

Cheers,

Matt

Hi Matt,

Let's go with that then, I'll send some questions after work hours to you.

Scott
